Kerrie Lalich

Chief Executive Officer, Lawcover

Meet the Speaker

Kerrie Lalich was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Lawcover in September 2020. She joined Lawcover in February 2013 as Chief Operations Officer, leading the Professional Services areas – Claims, Insurance Services, Practice Support Services and the ICT team. Kerrie was admitted as a solicitor in NSW in 1996 and her career has spanned several Sydney law firms. She practised in personal injury, professional indemnity and insurance litigation. In 2001, Kerrie moved from legal practice to the insurance industry, focusing on public liability, personal injury/catastrophic claims, professional indemnity and medical indemnity. Her insurance career has included time with AMP/GIO, Suncorp, QBE and MDA National. Kerrie's broad expertise includes leading diverse teams delivering professional indemnity, claims and risk management education services with a key focus on successful outcomes, business rigour and client value.
