Who we are

The Law Society of NSW is one of the largest legal professional bodies in the world, representing the interests of over 33,400 members.

Your involvement places your organisation at the heart of the legal profession—building visibility, credibility, and impact across NSW.

Empowering the future of the profession

The Law Society plays a critical role in students and graduates' transition from law student to practitioner. We provide essential support as they take the first step in their legal career journey, through a range of specialised events and tailored programs delivered throughout the year, supported by close connections with Law School Deans and faculties across NSW – and dedicated communications channels.

Overview

2027 Law Students Careers Summit

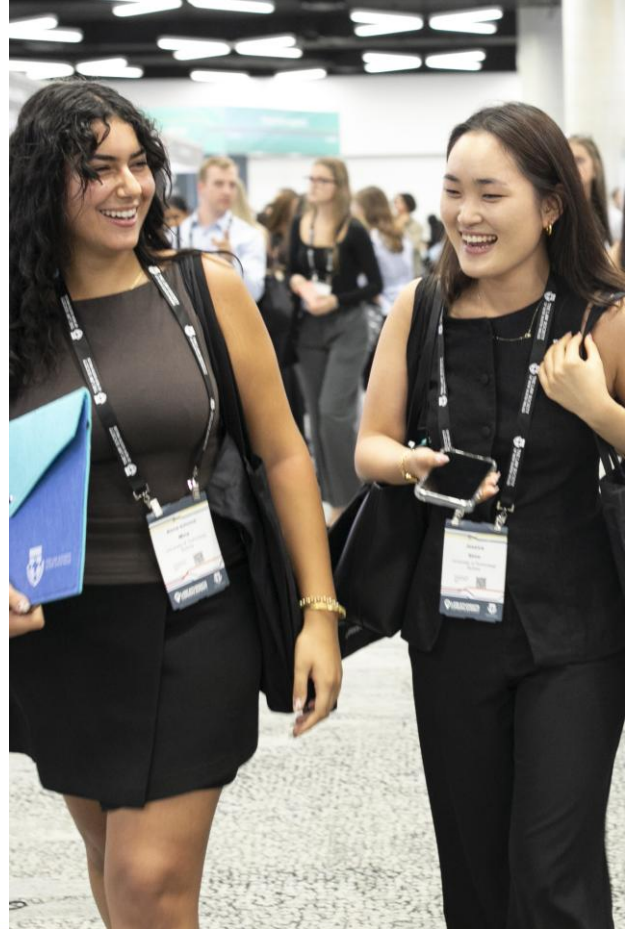

The Law Society of NSW's flagship event connects the next generation of legal talent with leading employers across all sectors.

The Summit invites students from all years of study across New South Wales. It offers a unique opportunity for students to connect directly with employers in the legal profession. Attendees get to participate in a series of workshops and presentations designed to equip them with the professional skills and information needed to gain a head start in their careers.

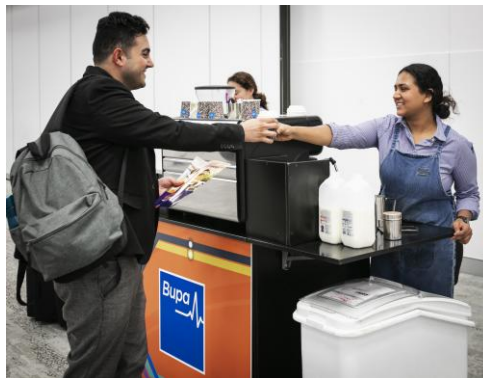

The event's date is aligned with key recruitment periods, and the attendance of top employers makes it a must-attend for all law students.

Event details:

- 17 March 2027, 4pm - 8pm
- International Convention Centre, Darling Harbour
- Over 1,000 student registrations
- Promotion to 2000+ student members and universities across NSW
- 40+ Exhibitors from across the profession

Exhibitor opportunities

Our career summit is primarily open to organisations that are actively looking to hire delegates, or to provide guidance on career paths.

Sponsorship packs are available for organisations that do not fall into this category but are looking to engage with the audience in a different capacity.

Please contact the team for more information.

In addition to the standard exhibition booth, exhibitors can increase their impact by adding optional activations, developed with the student audience in mind:

Standard Exhibitor

- Exhibition booth - from $2,400 (Early Bird)

Exhibitor Plus – booth plus any of the below activations:

- Headshot station x 2 - $2,600
- Coffee Cart - $2,100 (SOLD)
- Smoothie Station - $1,800
- Juice Station - $1,400
- Popcorn Station - $1,400

All Exhibitor Plus activations include relevant branded assets.

*All pricing exclude GST

Support students as they take their next career step.

One of the Summit's most popular activations, the complimentary headshot station helps students prepare for clerkships, graduate programs and future employment. Position your organisation alongside a valued career development experience with an impact that extends beyond the event day.

Included branding:

- Activation signage
- Station branding
- In all image delivery communications

Opt-in contact details from participating students are also included, subject to event registration consent.

Refreshment activations - $1,400-$1,800

Be part of the conversations shaping future careers.

Whether attendees are exploring exhibitors, networking with industry professionals or considering future career opportunities, our popcorn, juices and smoothie stations provide a natural reason to pause and engage. Each of these activations delivers strong visibility throughout the event – and puts your brand in the hands of the attendees.

- Smoothie Station - $1,800
- Juice Station - $1,400
- Popcorn Station - $1,400

Increased branding:

- Activation signage
- Station branding
- Sustainable branded packaging or serving containers
