

Lucinda McCann General Counsel, APRA

Day 2 – In-House Corporate Lawyers

Hear from the Regulators

About Lucinda McCann

Lucinda McCann is the General Counsel of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) and joined APRA in January 2020. Lucinda sits on the Resolution and Enforcement Committee and the Superannuation Executive Team at APRA. She leads the APRA legal function which comprises over 55 lawyers and investigators who are organised into 2 teams, being Advisory, Legal and Enforcement, Legal.

Prior to joining APRA, Lucinda was General Counsel for AMP Australia and led a team of around 35 financial services and banking lawyers who supported AMP's Advice, Superannuation, Platforms, Banking, Customer, Marketing and Sales business areas. Lucinda also acted as a director of several AMP Group subsidiary companies which hold Australian financial services licences.

Prior to being at AMP, Lucinda was a partner at Henry Davis York, then an Australian national law firm based in Sydney, Brisbane and Canberra. Lucinda has experience in acting for domestic and international clients such as wealth management businesses, fund managers, superannuation trustees, derivatives issuers, brokers, banks and investment banks. Lucinda has advised her clients in relation to Governance, disclosure and other regulatory and conduct issues arising under the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules, the ASX Market Integrity Rules and the ASX Operating Rules.

Lucinda holds a BA (Hons), LLB and Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice from the Australian National University and holds an LLM from Sydney University. Lucinda is also a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors' course. Lucinda is admitted to practise in New South Wales, the Australian Capital Territory and the High Court of Australia.