

International Day for Persons with Disabilities

Tuesday 3 December 2024 – 5.30pm – 7.00pm

Maree Skinner

Partner, Maddocks

Maree is a highly regarded employment lawyer with over 25 years' experience supporting clients in the management of their employee and industrial relations issues.

Maree practices in all aspects of employment and industrial relations law assisting clients with everything from day to day employment issues through to high level strategic advice. Maree is well known for her pragmatic employment advice in relation to commercial transactions, restructurings and administrations and receiverships.

Maree also regularly assists clients to manage their pro active obligations with respect to the workplace including by conducting tailored training for clients on a range of topics including appropriate workplace behaviour, work, health and safety, recruitment and investigations.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES