

In-House Corporate Lawyers Forum: The Dual Hatted Lawyer: Why multiple roles can mean multiple issues for in-house lawyers

Tuesday 23 April 2024 5.30pm – 7.00pm

Professor Pamela Hanrahan

BA (Hons) LLB (Hons) (Melb) LLM (Hons) (CWRU) SJD (Melb)

Professor Pamela Hanrahan is a lawyer, author and non-executive director recognised internationally for her expertise in corporate governance, business ethics and professionalism, corporations and collective investments law, financial services and markets law, and the design and administration of business regulation. She is an Emerita Professor of the University of New South Wales, a Senior Fellow of the Melbourne Law School, and a Consultant to Australian law firm Johnson Winter Slattery.

Pamela is Chair of the Business Law Section (BLS) of the Law Council of Australia, independent Chair of Landcom Corporation, and a member of the Conexus Institute Advisory Board, the Australian Institute of Company Directors' Corporate Governance National Committee, the BLS Corporations Committee, and the Australian Digital Financial Standards Advisory Council. Pamela is the author of a number of scholarly books and articles, and also writes the popular monthly "Directors' Counsel" column in Company Director magazine and co-hosts of the quarterly law podcast The BLS Report.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES