

Theo Kapodistrias

Senior Legal Counsel, Gentrack (Global) & Director, Association of Corporate Counsel Australia & Speaker & Coach

Theo Kapodistrias is a multi-award-winning lawyer, based in Hobart, Tasmania. He is also an award-winning speaker, MC and public speaking + presentation skills coach, running his own business.

Theo is also the author of A Way With Words, published by Rethink Press. This book became an Amazon Best Seller in 5 categories in its first 24 hours on sale. He's held senior legal roles currently as Senior Legal Counsel at Gentrack, previously as General Counsel at Evergen and the Legal and Commercial Manager at Tourism Tasmania. He has been recognised for his work in the legal and community space winning several awards and has been named one of Australia's Most Influential Lawyers by the Australasian Lawyer Magazine in both 2022 and 2023. He was also named the Speaker of the Year at the 2022 International Coaches Awards. He is a Non-Executive Director of the Association of Corporate Counsel Australia and previously at Business Events Tasmania.

In 2025, he's been appointed as Chair at Story Island Tasmania. In ACC Australia, he is also the Tasmanian Divisional President and Chair of the Sole Legal Officer Special Interest Group. In 2021, Theo took on the role as Executive Director and Licensee of TEDxHobart and is the host of a podcast titled 'Craft Messages That Matter.' In 2023, he delivered his own TEDx Talk at TEDxKatoomba titled "Lessons from my Ethnic Lunchbox."

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES